A CHANCE.

THE subscriber having purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by S. C. Spaulding, takes this method of informing the citizens of Janesville and the country generally that he will keep a full assortment of

Watches, Clocks, Jewelry,
SILVER WARE, PLATED WARE,
Spectacles, &c., &c., at the old stand, corner of Myers' New Block, where he will be pleased to meet any and all of the former patrons and as many new ones as may honor him with a call. He pledges them he will give them better bargains than can be had in the city or state.

Having had several years experience as a practical four of which in this city, I can safely promise those having watches for repairs that if they are trusted to my care I will do them justice, and my charges will be moderate.

Clocks and Jewelry carefully and neatly repaired.
ENGRAVING DONE TO ORDER.
Cash paid for old gold and silver.
J. A. DENELL.

In taking leave of my numerous customers, I can cheerfully recommend my successor, Mr. J. A. Denell, to their confidence, and as worthy of patronage from all who require any goods in his line. I shall be on hand most of the time at the old stand until spring. Those interested will please give me a call.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Southern News.

The governor of Alabama has ordered all the cotton in Montgomery to be deposited in one warehouse, where its destruction will not endanger the city. Owners have the privilege of removing their cotton to a distance from the city.

The Charleston Mercury has the report of a "brilliant" affair on the peninsula the day after the evacuation of Yorktown, in which Major Butler, of the Hampton Legion Cavalry, "with less than one hundred men, attacked and routed a regiment of Yankees, estimated at a thousand, killing a number and taking a number prisoners."

THE COTTON BURNERS ON THE RIVER.—A correspondent of the Little Rock True Democrat, writing from Memphis on the 30th ult., details what he saw on the steamboat Alonzo Child while on the way to this city, and adds: After leaving Helena, we came to the cotton burners; several large steamers sent out by order of the government to burn all the cotton to be found anywhere on the river. A dreary, desolate view it was—the smoking, blackened bales floated past us, and in some places, the river for miles was covered with bunches of the raw material, and the thickets that fringed the water were whitened as if snow drifts were piled up against their green foliage. The heart sickened at the sad spectacle that necessity had forced upon us, and as volumes of black smoke wreathed up far ahead, the conviction was irresistably forced upon all present that we were in the great theatre of war, where blackness and desolation meet you at every step.

The Newbern (N. C.) Progress of the 10th inst. says:

"The arrest of Mayor Respess, of Washington, N. C., who was seized in the night time in the most summary manner and hurried off to Richmond in irons, is creating a most intense excitement throughout the state. The governor of the state, (who is not in prison, as reported,) backed by the convention, sent a peremptory demand to the Richmond authorities, for the immediate delivery of the person of Mayor Respess, who was kept in close confinement. His trial was in progress when they received the demand, and the authorities at Richmond informed the committee sent by Gov. Clark, that there were a few more witnesses to appear in the case, and they desired to complete the trial. The committee informed the authorities at Richmond that the person of the mayor must be delivered up forthwith, otherwise North Carolina would send up a force to back up the demand of the convention. Mr. Respess was delivered over to the committee, and went to Raleigh rejoicing. He was set at liberty, and is now on his way home to Washington, where the Union citizens are preparing to give him an ovation. This committee was also instructed to, and did, deliver an order to the Virginia chivalry that North Carolina was capable of managing her own affairs, and that no more of her citizens must be taken out of the state.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard, is disgusted at the hypocrisy and cowardice of many of the truckling office holders about Richmond, who were red-hot for secession when the danger was far off, but who now calculate to save their bacon on the plea that "they did not bear arms."

Jas. Thompson, who recently deserted from the south, has informed the Herald that he was a sailor on board the Merrimac, and that in the naval fight the Monitor drove in some of her timbers, and finally sent her back to Norfolk with six feet of water in her hold. A large proportion of her crew were impressed, and at one time they had formed a plan to overpower the rest of the crew and take the vessel to Fortress Monroe and surrender to us. Fear that they were not strong enough to do it finally dissuaded them. He was also once engaged on works near Charleston, and says the rebels have made great preparations to defend that city, and adds:

In Charleston the "secesh," believe that their city is doomed to total destruction if ever the Union forces get into it. They fear a just retribution for the misery they have inaugurated and the blood they have shed, and they believe that the loyal states are more embittered against them than against any other city or section of the country. This fear the rebel leaders have endeavored to heighten by assuring the people of that city that if the Union forces once enter there, they will spare neither age, sex nor condition of life; that all will be put to death. This has driven hundreds in Charleston into the rebel ranks for the defence of the city—an attack upon which they momentarily expect.

WEATHER PHENOMENA.—Our exchanges from all quarters of the western states bring some items of rather a singular state of the weather during the past ten days. From Southern Illinois and Central Wisconsin we have accounts of death by lightning, indicating warm weather; from the Mississippi and Michigan records of severe frosts. In the words of the old Teuton, we may well exclaim, "Vot a countries!"

The fact is we have had a most remarkably wet, cold spring, and one to be remembered.

In Cass county, Michigan, on Monday night last, water froze to the thickness of one-eighth of an inch. Nearly all kinds of fruit are destroyed. This is also the case with garden vegetables, corn, potatoes, etc. The leaves upon the fruit and shade trees bear a black and withered appearance.

In Hillsdale county, in that state, on the same night, the grapes were almost entirely destroyed. Dahlias covered with jars, were frozen through. Grapes, covered with shawls and cloaks, also perished. In some places, strawberries were nearly all killed. Apples, peaches, and plums were but little injured.—Chicago Journal.

A Dutch captain, the other day, indulged in the pleasant recreation of booting one of the privates. There was no remedy, and as the soldier leaned upon his musket, he thus soliloquized:

"Has it come to this? Did our fathers fight for freedom in vain? Is there anything like constitutional freedom left? Then how comes it' that I, John Jones, of the Pennsylvania 69th, who have enlisted for a patriotic Pennsylvanian, should ever be kicked by a d——d Dutchman?"

MORTGAGES FOR SALE.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE
to produce
THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and forms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company, CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000 all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state. F. WHITAKER, Agent. Office in Young America Store, Myers' Block.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Southern News.

The governor of Alabama has ordered all the cotton in Montgomery to be deposited in one warehouse, where its destruction will not endanger the city. Owners have the privilege of removing their cotton to a distance from the city.

The Charleston Mercury has the report of a "brilliant" affair on the peninsula the day after the evacuation of Yorktown, in which Major Butler, of the Hampton Legion Cavalry, "with less than one hundred men, attacked and routed a regiment of Yankees, estimated at a thousand, killing a number and taking a number prisoners."

THE COTTON BURNERS ON THE RIVER.—A correspondent of the Little Rock True Democrat, writing from Memphis on the 30th ult., details what he saw on the steamboat Alonzo Child while on the way to this city, and adds: After leaving Helena, we came to the cotton burners; several large steamers sent out by order of the government to burn all the cotton to be found anywhere on the river. A dreary, desolate view it was—the smoking, blackened bales floated past us, and in some places, the river for miles was covered with bunches of the raw material, and the thickets that fringed the water were whitened as if snow drifts were piled up against their green foliage. The heart sickened at the sad spectacle that necessity had forced upon us, and as volumes of black smoke wreathed up far ahead, the conviction was irresistably forced upon all present that we were in the great theatre of war, where blackness and desolation meet you at every step.

The Newbern (N. C.) Progress of the 10th inst. says:

"The arrest of Mayor Respess, of Washington, N. C., who was seized in the night time in the most summary manner and hurried off to Richmond in irons, is creating a most intense excitement throughout the state. The governor of the state, (who is not in prison, as reported,) backed by the convention, sent a peremptory demand to the Richmond authorities, for the immediate delivery of the person of Mayor Respess, who was kept in close confinement. His trial was in progress when they received the demand, and the authorities at Richmond informed the committee sent by Gov. Clark, that there were a few more witnesses to appear in the case, and they desired to complete the trial. The committee informed the authorities at Richmond that the person of the mayor must be delivered up forthwith, otherwise North Carolina would send up a force to back up the demand of the convention. Mr. Respess was delivered over to the committee, and went to Raleigh rejoicing. He was set at liberty, and is now on his way home to Washington, where the Union citizens are preparing to give him an ovation. This committee was also instructed to, and did, deliver an order to the Virginia chivalry that North Carolina was capable of managing her own affairs, and that no more of her citizens must be taken out of the state.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard, is disgusted at the hypocrisy and cowardice of many of the truckling office holders about Richmond, who were red-hot for secession when the danger was far off, but who now calculate to save their bacon on the plea that "they did not bear arms."

Jas. Thompson, who recently deserted from the south, has informed the Herald that he was a sailor on board the Merrimac, and that in the naval fight the Monitor drove in some of her timbers, and finally sent her back to Norfolk with six feet of water in her hold. A large proportion of her crew were impressed, and at one time they had formed a plan to overpower the rest of the crew and take the vessel to Fortress Monroe and surrender to us. Fear that they were not strong enough to do it finally dissuaded them. He was also once engaged on works near Charleston, and says the rebels have made great preparations to defend that city, and adds:

In Charleston the "secesh" believe that their city is doomed to total destruction if ever the Union forces get into it. They fear a just retribution for the misery they have inaugurated and the blood they have shed, and they believe that the loyal states are more embittered against them than against any other city or section of the country. This fear the rebel leaders have endeavored to heighten by assuring the people of that city that if the Union forces once enter there, they will spare neither age, sex nor condition of life; that all will be put to death. This has driven hundreds in Charleston into the rebel ranks for the defence of the city—an attack upon which they momentarily expect.

WEATHER PHENOMENA.—Our exchanges from all quarters of the western states bring some items of rather a singular state of the weather during the past ten days. From Southern Illinois and Central Wisconsin we have accounts of death by lightning, indicating warm weather; from the Mississippi and Michigan records of severe frosts. In the words of the old Teuton, we may well exclaim, "Vot a countries!" The fact is we have had a most remarkably wet, cold spring, and one to be remembered.

In Cass county, Michigan, on Monday night last, water froze to the thickness of one-eighth of an inch. Nearly all kinds of fruit are destroyed. This is also the case with garden vegetables, corn, potatoes, etc. The leaves upon the fruit and shade trees bear a black and withered appearance.

In Hillsdale county, in that state, on the same night, the grapes were almost entirely destroyed. Dahlias covered with jars, were frozen through. Grapes, covered with shawls and cloaks, also perished. In some places, strawberries were nearly all killed. Apples, peaches, and plums were but little injured.—Chicago Journal.

A Dutch captain, the other day, indulged in the pleasant recreation of booting one of the privates. There was no remedy, and as the soldier leaned upon his musket, he thus soliloquized:

"Has it come to this? Did our fathers fight for freedom in vain? Is there anything like constitutional freedom left? Then how comes it that I, John Jones, of the Pennsylvania 69th, who have enlisted for a patriotic Pennsylvanian, should ever be kicked by a d——d Dutchman?"

MORTGAGES FOR SALE.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us!
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Gen. Halleck and Black Men.

The course pursued by Gen. Halleck towards the slaves in his department is as near insanity as any erratic demonstration we ever knew which left the unfortunate subject outside the walls of a madhouse. In a debilitating climate, with thousands of good men in hospital who have been sent there by the exhausting labor of cutting roads through swampy woods, digging entrenchments, planting seige guns and all the other usual hard work of preparation for a mighty field conflict, he obstinately excludes from his lines every black man to whom the climate is congenial and the hard labor no unusual effort. All the sickness and hard work of his camp might not be avoided by employing the thousands of slaves and free blacks who would willingly come to him, but very much of it might be, and hundreds of northern homes are made desolate or filled with fearful apprehensions because a military commander so intensely hates "a nigger" that he is sacrificing white men, by the wholesale, to his absurd prejudice or monomania.

We cannot think of this matter with any degree of patience, when we reflect how many true-hearted and patriotic men are dieing or lingering in sickness, and how many households are in mourning as the penalty of this obstinacy and inhumanity. If there were no other considerations than these, surely they are sufficient to induce every commander to avail himself of the aid so readily within his reach. The laurels Gen. Halleck is gathering will be sorrowfully tarnished by the remembrance of the unnecessary cost at which they are won, and the inevitable loss of the battle field will be fearfully augmented by additions from the hospital of men worn out by fatigue or predisposed to disease by needless exposure and severe toil.

While the President is revoking emancipation proclamations, is there not a chance for interference in behalf of humanity and loyal soldiers? Let the country, for once, be rejoiced by a "modification" on the right side of a virtually important and life-concerning question.

A Rich Development.

A Cincinnati correspondent of the New York Tribune makes a rich exposure of the editors of the Inquirer of that city. The Inquirer is a democratic paper of the Vallandigham sect, and is edited and published by two brothers, Washington and Wiley McLane.

This correspondent says that a few days since as Wiley McLane was walking down the streets with a Mr. Shaddinger, when they encountered one of our most respectable and loyal citizens, Mr. Lester Taylor. McLane mistaking him for a liquor merchant here, N. H. Davis by name, went brusquely up to Mr. Taylor, and said, "How are you? I was just going down to your room to take a drink, and was bringing my friend Shaddinger. I want to introduce him to you—Mr. Davis, Mr. Shaddinger. I tell you (slapping D. on the shoulder), he's the d—dest best secessionist in the city—thinks just as you and I." In all this McLane did not allow Mr. Taylor to say a word. Then remarking that he was sorry they couldn't have the contemplated chat and drink, McLane walked on with his friend, without discovering his mistake. Mr. Lester Taylor is known to be ready to make an affidavit to the matter. Mr. McLane, (continues this correspondent,) has persuaded the editors of this city to keep silent about the matter for the present, but not having so much influence with the Tribune, I presume he has not made the story contraband in its columns. The parties whose treachery is thus blurted out are leaders of the grand democratic resuscitation movement.

They have established an extensive wool factory in Janesville. Wool is wool, and if the negro exodus northward continues, there will be wool enough in Rock county before another spring to supply a dozen such.—Milwaukee News.

The crispiest-headed "darkie" in South Carolina would be a more desirable accession to a loyal community than that editor of the News who was once "suppressed" in New York for treasonable utterances. We hope to be spared any such infliction as a secession "exodus" from Milwaukee.

A DEMOCRATIC SOLDIER'S OPINION OF THE CHICAGO TIMES.—Capt. Samuel A. Daniel, of company E, 3d Iowa regiment, says the Chicago Tribune, an old fashioned, hard shell democrat, writes to his brother in this city, also a democrat, who voted for Sherman, the following prediction of the fate of the editor of the Chicago Times, should he make his appearance within the lines of the union army. The letter is dated "Near Corinth, May 18, 1862." He says:

"I have just been reading the Chicago Times of the 14th inst., and if we had the rotten editor of that concern here, in these secesh woods, the soldiers would shoot him down without making an attempt to take him prisoner."

GOOD.—Mr. Aspinwall acknowledges the receipt, altogether, of $5,622, towards the fund for the testimonial to Lieut. Worden of the Monitor.

The Merrimac.

Two of the crew of the Merrimac, who have arrived in Philadelphia, furnish the Inquirer of that with an interesting report of the contest in which that rebel vessel sunk the Cumberland and Congress, and was then repulsed by the Monitor. They then narrate the manner in which she was prepared for a subsequent encounter and the circumstances connected with her destruction. We extract the latter portion of the narrative:

PREPARING FOR THE NEXT FIGHT.

Her bows were protected with wrought iron casing; the guns injured were replaced. Great preparations were made to board the Monitor, in case of another engagement with her. Scaling ladders, iron and wooden wedges to wedge the turret of the Monitor, so that her guns could not be brought to bear; chopping axes, to destroy gutta percha pipe that supplies the Monitor with air; balls saturated with turpentine and oil, to throw into the turret; bottles with the same ingredients; chloroform bottles were placed on board, to throw down the turret of the Monitor, and three other boats were furnished with like ingredients. The tug White was furnished with chains to run around the turret of the Monitor, to fasten her to the Merrimac, and wet blankets and boiler iron plate to cover gratings supposed to be on the Monitor, in order to prevent the men from firing up at them, and also to smother the men on board the Monitor. The boarding party was to be led by Lieut. Davidson.

PLANS FOR REMOVING THE MERRIMAC.

On the evening of the bombardment of Sewall's Point, the Merrimac lay there watching the course of events. She remained there all night and all the next day. About seven o'clock in the evening of the day following the bombardment, Com. Tatnall held a council of war. All hands, including both officers and men, were called on the spar deck, and told by Com. Tatnall that, after due deliberation and consultation, he had arrived at the conclusion that the only chance of saving the vessel was to lighten her and get her up James river.

WHAT TATNALL KNEW.

The commodore knew at this time that the Union troops were in possession of Norfolk, and knew also that our gunboats were at the head of James river. All hands then went to work, and for four hours were employed in lightening the vessel, throwing overboard nearly all the coal and ballast. There was a great quantity of ballast on board, and the labor of lightening the vessel was of a very laborious character. About 12 o'clock that night the commodore held a consultation with the pilots, and was informed by them that it was an utter impossibility to get the vessel into James river at all. Commodore Tatnall then concluded to run the vessel ashore and beach her.

The vessel was then headed toward the shore, about half a mile above Craney Island, her bow heading toward the beach in consequence of her guns being double-shotted.

DESTRUCTION OF THE SHIP.

Her guns were run in, and her portholes closed, and preparations made to desert the vessel prior to her total destruction. Full three hours were consumed in landing the men, small boats being used. While the process of landing was going on, every preparation was being made to insure the entire destruction of the vessel. Tar, oil, fat and grease of every kind, and everything of a combustible nature that could be obtained, was spread over the decks and in the most available places, in order that no possibility could exist of the vessel escaping complete destruction.

At about five o'clock in the morning after a night fraught with hard work and great excitement, the vessel was fired, all hands having previously left for the shore, with the exception of Commodore Tatnal 1st Lieut. Jones, and two of the crew, who were to fire the combustibles spread so profusely around. It was just at this time, when the first indications of fire emanated from the vessel, that about 40 of the crew, who were all northern men, and, like our informant, pressed into the rebel service, deserted. During the time elapsing from the determination of the Commodore to burn the ship and the accomplishment of the act, the utmost confusion existed in all quarters on board. One half the officers were drunk and seemed to have but a semi-consciousness of what was going on.

At about five minutes to five o'clock, after the vessel had been burning for about an hour and a half, the explosion took place, and it is represented as being an occurrence that baffles description. The huge vessel was literally torn in pieces. The air was thick with large and small pieces of timber. Huge sections of red hot iron plate were torn off and whirled through the air like so much paper. The shore and water for miles around were covered with pieces of the wreck, in every concievable shape and size. The fated vessel sunk immediately after the explosion, not a vestige of her remaining above water one minute after the explosion took place.

REBEL CRUELTY.—A correspondent of the New York Express, writing from the battle field of Williamsburg, says:

"When on the early morning of Tuesday we occupied the fields of Williamsburg, a scene presented itself which no one engaged in the battle of the day before can ever forget. We naturally expected to find the field strewn with rebel dead. This was no surprise to us, but, though we had heard of the atrocities committed by our foe upon our wounded, very few of us, indeed, ever placed full reliance in these accounts until on that Tuesday morning we saw with our own eyes how true, alas! these accounts had been. I know at the battle of Williamsburg the rebels in the evening broke the necks of two Union soldiers, who had been wounded during the day. They twisted the leg off another man, who had it broken already in battle. Some of our Union wounded we even saw bayoneted to a fence. How desperate must be the cause which inspires its defenders with such diabolical passions! History will record, however, the most agreeable contrast of the manner in which their wounded are treated by our army. When on Tuesday last we visited their wounded no distinction could be noticed in the manner of their treatment and that of our own men. A Lieut. Campbell, of South Carolina, who died on Wednesday at Williamsburg from the effects of wounds received in Monday's battle, expressed his thanks at the way in which he had been taken care of by our surgeons. Shortly before he died he evidently felt remorse at his previous career, in fighting against the flag of his country, for he said "I hope I haven't made a mistake, I have tried to do my duty."

ANOTHER MARINE MONSTER.—The plating of the steam frigate Roanoke—mate of the defunct Merrimac—was commenced in the Brooklyn navy yard on Tuesday. The plates are four inches thick, and reach some four feet below water-mark. The spar deck and the old bulwarks, down to a level with the gun deck, have been completely cut away. The turrets will shortly be forthcoming, and the guns are rapidly preparing by the ordnance authorities, but their number and weight must remain a mystery to the public for the present.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Omceln Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

Dispatches received at the war department, to day, report everything quiet in the departments of Generals Fremont, Banks and McDowell.

No later official dispatches have been received from General McClellan's headquarters than those made public on yesterday. The latest reported that no general engagement had taken place, the enemy choosing to retire as our troops advanced.

WASHINGTON, May 22.

The latest advices received here at the war department from General Halleck's headquarters, report our army in full line of battle, within four miles of Corinth. For several days severe skirmishing had taken place as our lines were pushed forward, but the enemy did not seem inclined to make an attack.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Evening Journal.

CAIRO, May 23.

The steamer Nebraska Bill arrived from Pittsburg Landing this morning.

On Wednesday our heavy siege guns on the centre and right of our lines fired about 40 rounds at the enemy's entrenchments. The enemy replied occasionally, but without effect.

Our grand advance guard have taken position within a mile of the rebel entrenchments.

Heavy shirmishing has taken place along the entire line, but no general engagement is anticipated for several days.

The number of deserters from the rebel army is increasing daily. They confirm all previous reports of disaffection among Beauregard's troops and the scarcity of provisions.

Fort Pillow is not evacuated. A tug sent down to reconnoiter was fired on from the fort on Wednesday evening, and subsequent demonstrations by rebels prove that they still occupy the place.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

The secretary of the treasury has appointed George S. Dennison, from the neighborhood of New Orleans, as special agent and acting collector to open the port at the earliest practicable period, in order to carry out the president's proclamation.—Collectors will be appointed for Beaufort, N. C., and Port Royal, S. C., as soon as proper persons can be seclected, the object of the secretary of the treasury being to procure the services of those residents in south and who, in addition to efficiency, will be acceptable to all the parties concerned.

The conflict between the military and civil authorities last night grew out of the fact, as is generally represented, that a squad of soldiers went to the jail for the purpose of effecting the release of a colored woman alleged to be under military protection, and who had been sent thither by virtue of the decision of the commissoners under the fugitive slave law. The jailor Milburn and deputy marshal Philips refused to deliver to them the woman without an order from the Marshal Lamon. The consequences were, the military made them prisoners together with the counsel for the claimant of the woman, and lodged them in the capitol custom house, and removed the woman to another part of the city. At a subsequent period the marshal himself, accompanied by the superintendent of police, Mr. Webb, and one of his sergeants, in turn captured and made the two militaty guards prisoners. Things thus rested until an early hour this morning, when all the parties were released, excepting deputy marshal Philips and jailor Milburn. They too will doubtless be set at liberty in the course of the day.

NEW YORK, May 23.

Nassau date of the 14th inst. states that some 30 rebel vessels are awaiting the termination of the war, preferring inaction to certain capture by the blockaders, who, they say, have effectually sealed the southern ports.

CHICAGO, May 23.

Special to the Tribune from the fleet, 23d.—At one o'clock, yesterday, two mortars opened fire on the fort and kept it up at intervals of five minutes, until six in the evening. The firing was returned three or four times by guns from the rebels, either from fortifications or mortar boats, their shells bursting wide of the mark, and doing no damage.

BOSTON, May 23.

The steamer Rhode Island, which arrived here from New Orleans, to-day, brings 40 prisoners, principally officers of the confederate navy, captured at New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

It has been ascertained from an authentic source that the expenditures of the government from April 1861, to the present time, have not averaged one million per day. This may be considered a refutation of the exaggerated reports upon this subject.

The latest dispatches from the army of the Potomac state that McClellan has crossed the Chickahominy at Albino bridge. His headquarters are now at New Bridge. Preparations for an attack are now being made.

The rebels made a dash at Gen. Banks' line at Point Royal, this afternoon, and attempted to burn the railroad bridge recently rebuilt by the federals over the Shenandoah. Particulars unascertained. Nothing of further interest has been received up to 10 o'clock this evening from the military department.

[Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CAIRO, May 23.

The Illinois hospital boat, City of Alton, returned to-night. A recent order from Dr. McDougal, medical director, prohibits states from bringing away their own sick and wounded, until after battles; and as the time of the charter of the boat had expired, Gov. Yates was compelled to return without accomplishing his mission. He will immediately make arrangements to provide for all Illinois soldiers who may be wounded on the coming battle, which is not expected to take place for some days. She brought no news.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

The following noble letter from Governor Andrew explains itself:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, BOSTON, May 19 1862.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:—

SIR:—I have this moment read a telegram in these words, viz: "The Secretary of War desires to know how soon you can raise and organize three or four more infantry regiments, and have them ready to be forwarded here, to be armed and equipped. Please answer immediately and state the number you can raise.

[Signed] L. THOMAS, Adj't Gen."

A call sudden and unexpected, finds me without materials for an intelligent reply. Our young men are all pre-occupied with other views. Still if a real call for three regiments is made, I believe we can raise them in forty days. The arms and equipments would need to be furnished here.—Our people have never marched without them. They go into camp while forming into regiments, and are drilled and practiced with arms and march as soldiers. To attempt the other course, would be to dampen enthusiasm and make these men feel that they were not soldiers, but a mob.—Again, if our people feel that they are going into the south to help fight the rebels who will kill and destroy them by all means known to savages, as well as civilized men, who will deceive them by fraudulent flags of truce, and lying pretenses, as they did the Massachusetts boys at Williamsburg, and will use their negro slaves against them both as laborers and fighting men, while they themselves must never fire at the enemy's magazines, I think they will feel the draft is heavy on their patriotism; but if the President will sustain Gen. Hunter, recognize all men, even black men, as legally capable of that loyalty the blacks are waiting to manifest, and let them fight with God and human nature on their side, the roads will swarm, if need be, with multitudes whom New England would pour out to obey your call. Always ready to do my utmost, I remain, most faithfully,

[Signed,] Your obedient servant,
JNO. A. ANDREW.

The statement that Grimes said he wouldn't vote men and money for the war, is untrue. He said he did not feel in a hurry to take up the tax bill until the government declared its policy.

Lieut. Col. Heron of the 9th Iowa, and Crafts J. Wright of Ohio were nominated for brigadier generals.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 24.

The Tribune has the following—A gentleman just arrived from North Carolina and who was a passenger on the Oriental, gives the following interesting items of news in that state:

General Burnside has seized all the commissioners of the town of Edenton, North Carolina, J. C. Bland, A. J. Glover, S. A. Bond and F. L. Roberts, and taken them to his headquarters at Newburn. The fifth commissioner was not arrested, being confined to his bed by sickness. They are held as hostages for the safe return of Mr. White, a Union pilot, who was seized by the commissioners while on a visit to his wife at Edenton. It is alleged that these commissioners connived at Mr. White's arrest, though they strongly deny any complicity with the matter, and insist that they had no power to prevent it. General Burnside intends to send one of the commissioners to Raleigh, whither Mr. White has been conveyed, to demand his release. The confederates threaten to hang Mr. White, and General Burnside intends that all the commissioners shall swing for it, in case the confederates execute their threat. They were taken to Newburn in the steamer Ocean Wave, in charge of Major Jardine and a guard from his regiment, the Hawkin's Zouaves.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

HOUSE.—Evening Session.—Messrs. Sargent, Spaulding, Holman and Bennett, asked and obtained permission to print their reports.

Mr. Loomis advocated confiscation. It was our duty and right to free the slaves of every rebel.

Mr. Arnold maintained that kindness to rebels is regarded by them as an indication of weakness and cowardice. They must feel our power and respect the majesty of justice in the punishment of their crimes. It is a war of civilization against barbarism, and slavery must be exterminated.

All those who were arrested by either side, in the conflict between the military and civil authorities, yesterday, about fugitive slaves, are now released. Marshal Lamon and Military Governor Wadsworth had a long interview, to day relative to the conflict between them. The former claiming the right to execute all his civil functions in the absence of martial law. The question at issue will have to settled by the executive. Gen. Wadsworth intends to insist on an examination in every case where an alleged fugitive has an alleged pass for protection, and where there is reason to believe the accused is free under the law of August last, confiscating slaves who have been employed for insurrectionary purposes.

NASHVILLE, May 23.

An election was held in the state, yesterday, for judicial officers. The vote in Nashville stood for circuit judge: Brien, Union, 570; Foster, secessionist, 706. The secessionists generally voted the Union ticket regarding the election as invalid. Gov. Johnson will give no commission to secessionists elected. The president and cashier of the Bank of the Union were arrested, yesterday, by order of Gov. Johnson on the charge of treason. The town of Pulaski has been assessed for $1268 by the provost marshal to compensate a Union merchant for goods seized by Morgan's troops.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.

Col. Connor, at the head of the third California infantry, and five companies of second California cavalry, including a field battery, starts from Benerra, for Salt Lake on Monday.

BALTIMORE, May 24.

The following is taken from the American's Fortress Monroe correspondence:—There is but little change in the condition of affairs at Norfolk. The mayor and members of the city council still refuse to take the oath of allegiance. Gen. Wool had an interview with them, yesterday, but they continued in the sulks, so that he now refuses all intercourse with the people of Norfolk and Portsmouth. Even the little business they have been doing in the way of strawberries and peas is now stopped. Gen. Wool sent up a proclamation to Norfolk this morning, notifying the people that the matter was entirely in their own hands, so as they would acknowledge the supremacy of the government, they will enjoy its fostering aid, but while they remain in their present rebellious mood they will be cut off from all advantages of trade and commerce, and the city will be governed by strict martial law. He also assures them that no contingencies can possibly arise whereby Norfolk will again be given up to the control of the rebel government, and that those who entertain Union sentiments can give expression to them with ample assurance of protection of all their rights as citizens of the United States.

Most of the stores are now open and the sale of such goods as they have is progressing. As far as can be ascertained no one is now willing to receive confederate notes at par. Business is mostly done in small notes of Virginia banks and other chartered corporations. Government notes are received with great avidity. The Union men of Norfolk still hold back, afraid to express their sentiments openly, in defiance of the rebellious spirit around them. Quite an enthusiastic Union meeting was held at Portsmouth, on Thursday night. Not less than 800 were present, including many Union men from Norfolk. The course of the government in refusing to allow provisions to come there for loyal people was severely criticised and the propriety of such a course by no means approved. The scarcity of provisions and necessaries of life are so great and prices so high that the poor classes have to live almost entirely on fish and oysters. The secessionists are nearly all wealthy people, who can stand high prices, and have laid in their stocks long since. There is no doubt that the decision of Gen. Wool is leading to great suffering among the poorer classes. They have suffered beyond all endurance for a year.

It was reported at Norfolk, yesterday, that Burnside had take Weldon.

NEW YORK, May 24.

The Newburn Progress, of the 20th, mentions the return of an expedition of two regiments from Pollocksville, where they met and dispersed the rebel cavalry. No casualties are mentioned.

STRASBURG, Va., May 24.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

Col. Renly's command of infantry and cavalry have been driven from Front Royal with considerable loss in killed, wounded and prisoners. The enemy's force is estimated at from 5,000 to 6,000, and is reported as falling back on Front Royal. He probably occupies the place this morning.

Signed,
N. P. BANKS, Maj. Gen.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.

Gov. Curtin, on the first intimation from the war department that additional troops would be called for, immediately replied: Pennsylvania will furnish any number required. The department has asked for one regiment of infantry, which is now organizing, and will be sent forward shortly.

☞ The following is the conclusion of the article in our paper of yesterday, in relation to the prevalence and evils of gambling in New York city. It was accidently omitted:

There is no remedy for these things but in a CHRISTIAN PUBLIC SENTIMENT. The officers of the law are powerless to execute their trusts where no public encouragement sustains and inspires them. Evil men are united for evil. There is infernal wisdom among men who live by their fellows' vices. They are vigilant. They touch every spring of interest and resist interference by a public sentiment of evil, rising up unitedly from all kinds of bad men, which makes it difficult, under the most favorable circumstances, for public officers to meddle with illegal but attractive vice. If, besides, they are upborne and stimulated by no public sentiment of good citizens, how can we expect them to perform their duty.

We are very much addicted to law making. But law executing is neglected.—Once in a while men are seized with a virtuous indignation against vice; they rush to Albany, they raise express-funds, they fill the lobby, and importune committees. They want thunderbolts forged. They are fierce for laws. They must be strong laws, too. They want heavy artillery—fifteen-inch Dahlgrens. They get them. Then the zeal subsides. Their ponderous cannon are not moved from the arsenal of laws.—Nobody mounts them. A few are put on carriages and taken out for practice. A single target is set up—some chance offenders, not half so guilty as scores that are ostentatiously let alone, are blown from the cannon's muzzle. Then the conscience is appeased. The guns stand in battery thereafter like long rows of old cannon at the Wallabout.

Public sentiment is the powder by which laws are fired off in a democratic community. It is folly to found cannon but refuse to manufacture powder.

Is there not a duty here for young men's Christian associations? for churches? for book and tract societies? Might there not be concert of preaching in all our churches, instructive discourses on the evils, temptations, and liabilities of gambling? Surely there ought to be some evidence that Christianity has power upon society to repress evil. And yet in no heathen city on the globe is there less evidence of divine influence in administration of law than in New York. With all its churches, its pulpits, its ministers, its sermons, its church-members, its jealousy for sound doctrine, where else on the earth has there ever grown up and continued so long a city government whose administration was so notoriously corrupt—subversive not alone of the higher notions of virtue, but of common decency, and of the lowest forms of moral honesty.

Is there no blame and no duty laid upon Christian men in a city where the names of honorable offices have become synonyms of vice; where men who would hardly blush to be called scoundrels, are angry enough if you call them aldermen; where office means enginery of theft; where the presiding officer is sometimes a notorious gambler; where pimps, pugilists, and brutal grog-sellers fill the chair and dominate in the most import committees?

That vice and crime should deal thus, suprises no one. But what shall be tho't of Christians and Christian teachers who from year to year sit permissively down in the presence of such evils, without earnestly using the power given them in trust for the exorcism of evil; and in a community whose organic form makes it the duty of every citizen to secure public morals, good laws, and the efficient execution of them?

From the Mobile Advertiser.

The Damage Sustained by the Fleet.

A gentleman from New Orleans, who repeatedly viewed the federal men-of-war from the levee as they lay in the stream, informs us that they bore many marks of the conflict through which they had passed. Some of them were riddled with many shot-holes, and it was understood in the city that the enemy's loss of life was very heavy. The reports are that the confederate flotilla made a desperate fight, and that the marks of damage on the enemy's vessels were the works of our naval gunners. Many of the enemy's vessels had to constantly keep their steam pumps going to prevent sinking, and a large force were at work endeavoring to raise one of the stocks to enable the repair of damages. The confederate gunboat McRea, which came up under a flag of truce, was completely riddled, and only kept from sinking by incessant working of the steam pumps. She sunk in a short time after pumping was suspended.

The captain of the Louisiana is said to have lost a leg and an arm. The enemy's vessels did not stay to fight the Louisiana any longer than they could help, but ran right by her, discharging their tremendous broadsides at close range, almost touching her as they passed in up the river. It was "give and take," a daring and dashing policy which succeeded, as dare and dash generally do in war. It is said that the enemy have not one single naval trophy of victory, every one of our gunboats having been destroyed by them in the fight, or by ourselves, and not one surrendered. Their only prizes were two or three merchant steamers. The confederate flag was not struck or anything that bore it on the bosom of the Mississippi, but went up in flame or down beneath the waters of the great southern river, over which it will wave again, the symbol of empire there. A great loss of life must have been suffered by our flotilla.

The bombardment of the batteries just below the city lasted but an hour and a quarter, when every gun was silenced by the fleet, which laid close up alongside the bank and discharged broadside after broadside of their heavy armaments at close range. The batteries mounted nothing but smooth 24s, which were tumbled over by the great Yankee shot as nine-pins are bowled down by the player's balls. No man was killed, nor is it believed injured by the batteries.

HEALTH OF NEW ORLEANS.—For the satisfaction of the thousands who have loved ones in the federal army in Louisiana and other Gulf states, it is well to state that the old citizens of New Orleans, now here, state positively, that, notwithstanding the report that two or three cases of yellow fever have occurred in that city, there is no danger of the prevalence of that disease in May, and, indeed, not until the latter part of July or August. They say also that experience has shown that immigrants from the north are not so liable to be attacked by the climatic diseases during the first, as during the second year of their residence in the south, and that as far as New Orleans is concerned, the people from the rural districts of Louisiana and Mississippi are quite as liable as northern men to the diseases incident to the immediate locality of New Orleans. They believe that with judicious sanitary regulations the Union soldiers will be even more healthy than the rebel troops in that climate.—Washington Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Prevent Swine from Running at Large."

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do Ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The following sections of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Prevent Swine from Running at Large," are hereby amended as follows: Section two is amended by striking out the words, "place as" in the 2d line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "public pound or pounds as now are or hereafter shall be established by," and striking out the words "together with the city marshal shall provide," also by striking out the word "marshal" in the 4th line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "constables." Section three is amended by striking out the word "marshal" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "pound keeper or person in charge of the pound." Section four is amended by striking out the word "marshal" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "person in charge of said pound." Section five is amended by inserting after the word "impounded" in the 3d line of said section, the words "by the pound keeper or person in charge thereof," and by striking out the word "marshal" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "pound keeper or person in charge thereof." Section six is amended by striking out all after the word "treasurer" commencing with the word "and." Section eight is amended by adding thereto the following words, "Any person or persons who shall forcibly break open any pound established by said city and take therefrom or attempt to take therefrom in manner aforesaid any animal or animals impounded therein shall severally forfeit and pay to the city of Janesville, as a penalty, the sum of twenty-five dollars."

SEC. 2. Section seven of said ordinance is hereby amended so that it shall read as follows: All persons appointed by the common council of said city, pound keepers shall provide at their own expense suitable subsistence for all animals impounded, and the persons so appointed shall respectively receive, as compensation as such pound keepers, all moneys by them collected or received for subsistence, together with one half of all penalties collected by them, and shall receive no other or greater compensation. And it shall be the duty of all persons so appointed to report, in writing, to the common council on the first day of every month, said report to be upon oath, the number and kind of animals impounded in the particular pound of which he may have charge, the several sums of money received by him for penalties and subsistence, as well as from sales, from whom received and when, and shall thereupon pay into the treasury of said city all moneys in his hands due said city. Any person appointed pound keeper may be removed at the pleasure of said common council.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

Gen. Halleck and Black Men.

The course pursued by Gen. Halleck towards the slaves in his department is as near insanity as any erratic demonstration we ever knew which left the unfortunate subject outside the walls of a madhouse. In a debilitating climate, with thousands of good men in hospital who have been sent there by the exhausting labor of cutting roads through swampy woods, digging entrenchments, planting seige guns and all the other usual hard work of preparation for a mighty field conflict, he obstinately excludes from his lines every black man to whom the climate is congenial and the hard labor no unusal effort. All the sickness and hard work of his camp might not be avoided by employing the thousands of slaves and free blacks who would willingly come to him, but very much of it might be, and hundreds of northern homes are made desolate or filled with fearful apprehensions because a military commander so intensely hates "a nigger" that he is sacrificing white men, by the wholesale, to his absurd prejudice or monomania.

We cannot think of this matter with any degree of patience, when we reflect how many true-hearted and patriotic men are dieing or lingering in sickness, and how many households are in mourning as the penalty of this obstinacy and inhumanity. If there were no other considerations than these, surely they are sufficient to induce every commander to avail himself of the aid so readily within his reach. The laurels Gen. Halleck is gathering will be sorrowfully tarnished by the remembrance of the unnecessary cost at which they are won, and the inevitable loss of the battle field will be fearfully augmented by additions from the hospital of men worn out by fatigue or predisposed to disease by needless exposure and severe toil.

While the President is revoking emancipation proclamations, is there not a chance for interference in behalf of humanity and loyal soldiers? Let the country, for once, be rejoiced by a "modification" on the right side of a virtually important and life-concerning question.

A Rich Development.

A Cincinnati correspondent of the New York Tribune makes a rich exposure of the editors of the Inquirer of that city. The Inquirer is a democratic paper of the Vallandigham sect, and is edited and published by two brothers, Washington and Wiley McLane.

This correspondent says that a few days since as Wiley McLane was walking down the streets with a Mr. Shaddinger, when they encountered one of our most respectable and loyal citizens, Mr. Lester Taylor. McLane mistaking him for a liquor merchant here, N. H. Davis by name, went brusquely up to Mr. Taylor, and said, "How are you? I was just going down to your room to take a drink, and was bringing my friend Shaddinger. I want to introduce him to you—Mr. Davis, Mr. Shaddinger. I tell you (slapping D. on the shoulder), he's the d—dest best secessionist in the city—thinks just as you and I." In all this McLane did not allow Mr. Taylor to say a word. Then remarking that he was sorry they couldn't have the contemplated chat and drink, McLane walked on with his friend, without discovering his mistake. Mr. Lester Taylor is known to be ready to make an affidavit to the matter. Mr. McLane, (continues this correspondent,) has persuaded the editors of this city to keep silent about the matter for the present, but not having so much influence with the Tribune, I presume he has not made the story contraband in its columns. The parties whose treachery is thus blurted out are leaders of the grand democratic resuscitation movement.

They have established an extensive wool factory in Janesville. Wool is wool, and if the negro exodus northward continues, there will be wool enough in Rock county before another spring to supply a dozen such.—Milwaukee News.

The crispiest-headed "darkie" in South Carolina would be a more desirable accession to a loyal community than that editor of the News who was once "suppressed" in New York for treasonable utterances. We hope to be spared any such infliction as a secession "exodus" from Milwaukee.

A DEMOCRATIC SOLDIER'S OPINION OF THE CHICAGO TIMES.—Capt. Samuel A. Daniel, of company E, 3d Iowa regiment, says the Chicago Tribune, an old fashioned, hard shell democrat, writes to his brother in this city, also a democrat, who voted for Sherman, the following prediction of the fate of the editor of the Chicago Times, should he make his appearance within the lines of the union army. The letter is dated "Near Corinth, May 18, 1862." He says:

"I have just been reading the Chicago Times of the 14th inst., and if we had the rotten editor of that concern here, in these secesh woods, the soldiers would shoot him down without making an attempt to take him prisoner."

GOOD.—Mr. Aspinwall acknowledges the receipt, altogether, of $5,622, towards the fund for the testimonial to Lieut. Worden of the Monitor.

The Merrimac.

Two of the crew of the Merrimac, who have arrived in Philadelphia, furnish the Inquirer of that with an interesting report of the contest in which that rebel vessel sunk the Cumberland and Congress, and was then repulsed by the Monitor. They then narrate the manner in which she was prepared for a subsequent encounter and the circumstances connected with her destruction. We extract the latter portion of the narrative:

PREPARING FOR THE NEXT FIGHT.

Her bows were protected with wrought iron casing; the guns injured were replaced. Great preparations were made to board the Monitor, in case of another engagement with her. Scaling ladders, iron and wooden wedges to wedge the turret of the Monitor, so that her guns could not be brought to bear; chopping axes, to destroy gutta percha pipe that supplies the Monitor with air; balls saturated with turpentine and oil, to throw into the turret; bottles with the same ingredients; chloroform bottles were placed on board, to throw down the turret of the Monitor, and three other boats were furnished with like ingredients.

The tug White was furnished with chains to run around the turret of the Monitor, to fasten her to the Merrimac, and wet blankets and boiler iron plate to cover gratings supposed to be on the Monitor, in order to prevent the men from firing up at them, and also to smother the men on board the Monitor. The boarding party was to be led by Lieut. Davidson.

PLANS FOR REMOVING THE MERRIMAC.

On the evening of the bombardment of Sewall's Point, the Merrimac lay there watching the course of events. She remained there all night and all the next day. About seven o'clock in the evening of the day following the bombardment, Com. Tatnall held a council of war. All hands, including both officers and men, were called on the spar deck, and told by Com. Tatnall that, after due deliberation and consultation, he had arrived at the conclusion that the only chance of saving the vessel was to lighten her and get her up James river.

WHAT TATNALL KNEW.

The commodore knew at this time that the Union troops were in possession of Norfolk, and knew also that our gunboats were at the head of James river. All hands then went to work, and for four hours were employed in lightening the vessel, throwing overboard nearly all the coal and ballast. There was a great quantity of ballast on board, and the labor of lightening the vessel was of a very laborious character. About 12 o'clock that night the commodore held a consultation with the pilots, and was informed by them that it was an utter impossibility to get the vessel into James river at all. Commodore Tatnall then concluded to run the vessel ashore and beach her.

The vessel was then headed toward the shore, about half a mile above Craney Island, her bow heading toward the beach in consequence of her guns being double-shotted.

DESTRUCTION OF THE SHIP.

Her guns were run in, and her portholes closed, and preparations made to desert the vessel prior to her total destruction. Full three hours were consumed in landing the men, small boats being used. While the process of landing was going on, every preparation was being made to insure the entire destruction of the vessel. Tar, oil, fat and grease of every kind, and everything of a combustible nature that could be obtained, was spread over the decks and in the most available places, in order that no possibility could exist of the vessel escaping complete destruction.

At about five o'clock in the morning after a night fraught with hard work and great excitement, the vessel was fired, all hands having previously left for the shore, with the exception of Commodore Tatnal 1st Lieut. Jones, and two of the crew, who were to fire the combustibles spread so profusely around. It was just at this time, when the first indications of fire emanated from the vessel, that about 40 of the crew, who were all northern men, and, like our informant, pressed into the rebel service, deserted. During the time elapsing from the determination of the Commodore to burn the ship and the accomplishment of the act, the utmost confusion existed in all quarters on board. One half the officers were drunk and seemed to have but a semi-consciousness of what was going on.

At about five minutes to five o'clock, after the vessel had been burning for about an hour and a half, the explosion took place, and it is represented as being an occurrence that baffles description. The huge vessel was literally torn in pieces. The air was thick with large and small pieces of timber. Huge sections of red hot iron plate were torn off and whirled through the air like so much paper. The shore and water for miles around were covered with pieces of the wreck, in every concievable shape and size. The fated vessel sunk immediately after the explosion, not a vestige of her remaining above water one minute after the explosion took place.

REBEL CRUELTY.—A correspondent of the New York Express, writing from the battle field of Williamsburg, says:

"When on the early morning of Tuesday we occupied the fields of Williamsburg, a scene presented itself which no one engaged in the battle of the day before can ever forget. We naturally expected to find the field strewn with rebel dead. This was no surprise to us, but, though we had heard of the atrocities committed by our foe upon our wounded, very few of us, indeed, ever placed full reliance in these accounts until on that Tuesday morning we saw with our own eyes how true, alas! these accounts had been. I know at the battle of Williamsburg the rebels in the evening broke the necks of two Union soldiers, who had been wounded during the day. They twisted the leg off another man, who had it broken already in battle. Some of our Union wounded we even saw bayoneted to a fence. How desperate must be the cause which inspires its defenders with such diabolical passions! History will record, however, the most agreeable contrast of the manner in which their wounded are treated by our army. When on Tuesday last we visited their wounded no distinction could be noticed in the manner of their treatment and that of our own men. A Lieut. Campbell, of South Carolina, who died on Wednesday at Williamsburg from the effects of wounds received in Monday's battle, expressed his thanks at the way in which he had been taken care of by our surgeons. Shortly before he died he evidently felt remorse at his previous career, in fighting against the flag of his country, for he said "I hope I haven't made a mistake, I have tried to do my duty."

ANOTHER MARINE MONSTER.—The plating of the steam frigate Roanoke—mate of the defunct Merrimac—was commenced in the Brooklyn navy yard on Tuesday. The plates are four inches thick, and reach some four feet below water-mark. The spar deck and the old bulwarks, down to a level with the gun deck, have been completely cut away. The turrets will shortly be forthcoming, and the guns are rapidly preparing by the ordnance authorities, but their number and weight must remain a mystery to the public for the present.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

Dispatches received at the war department, to day, report everything quiet in the departments of Generals Fremont, Banks and McDowell.

No later official dispatches have been received from General McClellan's headquarters than those made public on yesterday. The latest reported that no general engagement had taken place, the enemy choosing to retire as our troops advanced.

WASHINGTON, May 22.

The latest advices received here at the war department from General Halleck's headquarters, report our army in full line of battle, within four miles of Corinth. For several days severe skirmishing had taken place as our lines were pushed forward, but the enemy did not seem inclined to make an attack.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Evening Journal.

CAIRO, May 23.

The steamer Nebraska Bell arrived from Pittsburg Landing this morning.

On Wednesday our heavy siege guns on the centre and right of our lines fired about 40 rounds at the enemy's entrenchments. The enemy replied occasionally, but without effect.

Our grand advance guard have taken position within a mile of the rebel entrenchments.

Heavy skirmishing has taken place along the entire line, but no general engagement is anticipated for several days.

The number of deserters from the rebel army is increasing daily. They confirm all previous reports of disaffection among Beauregard's troops and the scarcity of provisions.

Fort Pillow is not evacuated. A tug sent down to reconnoiter was fired on from the fort on Wednesday evening, and subsequent demonstrations by rebels prove that they still occupy the place.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

The secretary of the treasury has appointed George S. Dennison, from the neighborhood of New Orleans, as special agent and acting collector to open the port at the earliest practicable period, in order to carry out the president's proclamation.—Collectors will be appointed for Beaufort, N. C., and Port Royal, S. C., as soon as proper persons can be seclected, the object of the secretary of the treasury being to procure the services of those residents in south and who, in addition to efficiency, will be acceptable to all the parties concerned.

The conflict between the military and civil authorities last night grew out of the fact, as is generally represented, that a squad of soldiers went to the jail for the purpose of effecting the release of a colored woman alleged to be under military protection, and who had been sent thither by virtue of the decision of the commissoners under the fugitive slave law. The jailor Milburn and deputy marshal Philips refused to deliver to them the woman without an order from the Marshal Lamon. The consequences were, the military made them prisoners together with the counsel for the claimant of the woman, and lodged them in the capitol custom house, and removed the woman to another part of the city. At a subsequent period the marshal himself, accompanied by the superintendent of police, Mr. Webb, and one of his sergeants, in turn captured and made the two militaty guards prisoners. Things thus rested until an early hour this morning, when all the parties were released, excepting deputy marshal Philips and jailor Milburn. They too will doubtless be set at liberty in the course of the day.

NEW YORK, May 23.

Nassau date of the 14th inst. states that some 30 rebel vessels are awaiting the termination of the war, preferring inaction to certain capture by the blockaders, who, they say, have effectually sealed the southern ports.

CHICAGO, May 23.

Special to the Tribune from the fleet, 23d.—At one o'clock, yesterday, two mortars opened fire on the fort and kept it up at intervals of five minutes, until six in the evening. The firing was returned three or four times by guns from the rebels, either from fortifications or mortar boats, their shells bursting wide of the mark, and doing no damage.

BOSTON, May 23.

The steamer Rhode Island, which arrived here from New Orleans, to-day, brings 40 prisoners, principally officers of the confederate navy, captured at New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

It has been ascertained from an authentic source that the expenditures of the government from April 1861, to the present time, have not averaged one million per day. This may be considered a refutation of the exaggerated reports upon this subject.

The latest dispatches from the army of the Potomac state that McClellan has crossed the Chickahominy at Albino bridge. His headquarters are now at New Bridge. Preparations for an attack are now being made.

The rebels made a dash at Gen. Banks' line at Point Royal, this afternoon, and attempted to burn the railroad bridge recently rebuilt by the federals over the Shenandoah. Particulars unascertained. Nothing of further interest has been received up to 10 o'clock this evening from the military department.

[Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

CAIRO, May 23.

The Illinois hospital boat, City of Alton, returned to-night. A recent order from Dr. McDougal, medical director, prohibits states from bringing away their own sick and wounded, until after battles; and as the time of the charter of the boat had expired, Gov. Yates was compelled to return without accomplishing his mission. He will immediately make arrangements to provide for all Illinois soldiers who may be wounded on the coming battle, which is not expected to take place for some days. She brought no news.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

The following noble letter from Governor Andrew explains itself:

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, BOSTON, May 19 1862.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:—

SIR:—I have this moment read a telegram in these words, viz: "The Secretary of War desires to know how soon you can raise and organize three or four more infantry regiments, and have them ready to be forwarded here, to be armed and equipped. Please answer immediately and state the number you can raise.

[Signed] L. THOMAS, Adj't Gen."

A call sudden and unexpected, finds me without materials for an intelligent reply. Our young men are all pre-occupied with other views. Still if a real call for three regiments is made, I believe we can raise them in forty days. The arms and equipments would need to be furnished here.—Our people have never marched without them. They go into camp while forming into regiments, and are drilled and practiced with arms and march as soldiers. To attempt the other course, would be to dampen enthusiasm and make these men feel that they were not soldiers, but a mob.—Again, if our people feel that they are going into the south to help fight the rebels who will kill and destroy them by all means known to savages, as well as civilized men, who will deceive them by fraudulent flags of truce, and lying pretenses, as they did the Massachusetts boys at Williamsburg, and will use their negro slaves against them both as laborers and fighting men, while they themselves must never fire at the enemy's magazines, I think they will feel the draft is heavy on their patriotism; but if the President will sustain Gen. Hunter, recognize all men, even black men, as legally capable of that loyalty the blacks are waiting to manifest, and let them fight with God and human nature on their side, the roads will swarm, if need be, with multitudes whom New England would pour out to obey your call. Always ready to do my utmost, I remain, most faithfully,

[Signed,] Your obedient servant,

JNO. A. ANDREW.

The statement that Grimes said he wouldn't vote men and money for the war, is untrue. He said he did not feel in a hurry to take up the tax bill until the government declared its policy.

Lieut. Col. Heron of the 9th Iowa, and Crafts J. Wright of Ohio were nominated for brigadier generals.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, May 24.

The Tribune has the following—A gentleman just arrived from North Carolina and who was a passenger on the Oriental, gives the following interesting items of news in that state:

General Burnside has seized all the commissioners of the town of Edenton, North Carolina, J. C. Bland, A. J. Glover, S. A. Bond and F. L. Roberts, and taken them to his headquarters at Newburn. The fifth commissioner was not arrested, being confined to his bed by sickness. They are held as hostages for the safe return of Mr. White, a Union pilot, who was seized by the commissioners while on a visit to his wife at Edenton. It is alleged that these commissioners connived at Mr. White's arrest, though they strongly deny any complicity with the matter, and insist that they had no power to prevent it. General Burnside intends to send one of the commissioners to Raleigh, whither Mr. White has been conveyed, to demand his release. The confederates threaten to hang Mr. White, and General Burnside intends that all the commissioners shall swing for it, in case the confederates execute their threat. They were taken to Newburn in the steamer Ocean Wave, in charge of Major Jardine and a guard from his regiment, the Hawkin's Zouaves.

WASHINGTON, May 23.

HOUSE.—Evening Session.—Messrs. Sargent, Spaulding, Holman and Bennett, asked and obtained permission to print their reports.

Mr. Loomis advocated confiscation. It was our duty and right to free the slaves of every rebel.

Mr. Arnold maintained that kindness to rebels is regarded by them as an indication of weakness and cowardice. They must feel our power and respect the majesty of justice in the punishment of their crimes. It is a war of civilization against barbarism, and slavery must be exterminated.

All those who were arrested by either side, in the conflict between the military and civil authorities, yesterday, about fugitive slaves, are now released. Marshal Lamon and Military Governor Wadsworth had a long interview, to-day relative to the conflict between them. The former claiming the right to execute all his civil functions in the absence of martial law. The question at issue will have to settled by the executive. Gen. Wadsworth intends to insist on an examination in every case where an alleged fugitive has an alleged pass for protection, and where there is reason to believe the accused is free under the law of August last, confiscating slaves who have been employed for insurrectionary purposes.

NASHVILLE, May 23.

An election was held in the state, yesterday, for judicial officers. The vote in Nashville stood for circuit judge: Erlen. Union, 570; Foster, secessionist, 706. The secessionists generally voted the Union ticket regarding the election as invalid. Gov. Johnson will give no commission to secessionists elected. The president and cashier of the Bank of the Union were arrested, yesterday, by order of Gov. Johnson on the charge of treason. The town of Pulaski has been assessed for $1268 by the provost marshal to compensate a Union merchant for goods seized by Morgan's troops.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.

Col. Connor, at the head of the third California infantry, and five companies of second California cavalry, including a field battery, starts from Benerra, for Salt Lake on Monday.

BALTIMORE, May 24.

The following is taken from the American's Fortress Monroe correspondence:—There is but little change in the condition of affairs at Norfolk. The mayor and members of the city council still refuse to take the oath of allegiance. Gen. Wool had an interview with them, yesterday, but they continued in the sulks, so that he now refuses all intercourse with the people of Norfolk and Portsmouth. Even the little business they have been doing in the way of strawberries and peas is now stopped. Gen. Wool sent up a proclamation to Norfolk this morning, notifying the people that the matter was entirely in their own hands, so as they would acknowledge the supremacy of the government, they will enjoy its fostering aid, but while they remain in their present rebellious mood they will be cut off from all advantages of trade and commerce, and the city will be governed by strict martial law. He also assures them that no contingencies can possibly arise whereby Norfolk will again be given up to the control of the rebel government, and that those who entertain Union sentiments can give expression to them with ample assurance of protection of all their rights as citizens of the United States.

Most of the stores are now open and the sale of such goods as they have is progressing. As far as can be ascertained no one is now willing to receive confederate notes at par. Business is mostly done in small notes of Virginia banks and other chartered corporations. Government notes are received with great avidity. The Union men of Norfolk still hold back, afraid to express their sentiments openly, in defiance of the rebellious spirit around them. Quite an enthusiastic Union meeting was held at Portsmouth, on Thursday night. Not less than 800 were present, including many Union men from Norfolk. The course of the government is refusing to allow provisions to come there for loyal people was severely criticised and the propriety of such a course by no means approved. The scarcity of provisions and necessaries of life are so great and prices so high that the poor class es have to live almost entirely on fish and oysters. The secessionists are nearly all wealthy people, who can stand high prices, and have laid in their stocks long since. There is no doubt that the decision of Gen. Wool is leading to great suffering among the poorer classes. They have suffered beyond all endurance for a year.

It was reported at Norfolk, yesterday, that Burnside had take Weldon.

NEW YORK, May 24.

The Newburn Progress, of the 20th, mentions the return of an expedition of two regiments from Pollocksville, where they met and dispersed the rebel cavalry. No casualties are mentioned.

STRASBURG, Va., May 24.

To Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

Col. Renly's command of infantry and cavalry have been driven from Front Royal with considerable loss in killed, wounded and prisoners. The enemy's force is estimated at from 5,000 to 6,000, and is reported as falling back on Front Royal. He probably occupies the place this morning.

Signed,

N. P. BANKS, Maj. Gen.

PHILADELPHIA, May 24.

Gov. Curtin, on the first intimation from the war department that additional troops would be called for, immediately replied: Pennsylvania will furnish any number required. The department has asked for one regiment of infantry, which is now organizing, and will be sent forward shortly.

☞ The following is the conclusion of the article in our paper of yesterday, in relation to the prevalence and evils of gambling in New York city. It was accidently omitted:

There is no remedy for these things but in a CHRISTIAN PUBLIC SENTIMENT. The officers of the law are powerless to execute their trusts where no public encouragement sustains and inspires them. Evil men are united for evil. There is infernal wisdom among men who live by their fellows' vices. They are vigilant. They touch every spring of interest and resist interference by a public sentiment of evil, rising up unitedly from all kinds of bad men, which makes it difficult, under the most favorable circumstances, for public officers to meddle with illegal but attractive vice. If, besides, they are upborne and stimulated by no public sentiment of good citizens, how can we expect them to perform their duty.

We are very much addicted to law making. But law executing is neglected.—Once in a while men are seized with a virtuous indignation against vice; they rush to Albany, they raise express-funds, they fill the lobby, and importune committees. They want thunderbolts forged. They are fierce for laws. They must be strong laws, too. They want heavy artillery—fifteen-inch Dahlgrens. They get them. Then the zeal subsides. Their ponderous cannon are not moved from the arsenal of laws.—Nobody mounts them. A few are put on carriages and taken out for practice. A single target is set up—some chance offenders, not half so guilty as scores that are ostentatiously let alone, are blown from the cannon's muzzle. Then the conscience is appeased. The guns stand in battery thereafter like long rows of old cannon at the Wallabout.

Public sentiment is the powder by which laws are fired off in a democratic community. It is folly to found cannon but refuse to manufacture powder.

Is there not a duty here for young men's Christian associations? for churches? for book and tract societies? Might there not be concert of preaching in all our churches, instructive discourses on the evils, temptations, and liabilities of gambling? Surely there ought to be some evidence that Christianity has power upon society to repress evil. And yet in no heathen city on the globe is there less evidence of divine influence in administration of law than in New York. With all its churches, its pulpits, its ministers, its sermons, its church members, its jealousy for sound doctrine, where else on the earth has there ever grown up and continued so long a city government whose administration was so notoriously corrupt—subversive not alone of the higher notions of virtue, but of common decency, and of the lowest forms of moral honesty.

Is there no blame and no duty laid upon Christian men in a city where the names of honorable offices have become synonyms of vice; where men who would hardly blush to be called scoundrels, are angry enough if you call them aldermen; where office means enginery of theft; where the presiding officer is sometimes a notorious gambler; where pimps, pugilists, and brutal grog-sellers fill the chair and dominate in the most import committees?

That vice and crime should deal thus, suprises no one. But what shall be tho't of Christians and Christian teachers who from year to year sit permissively down in the presence of such evils, without earnestly using the power given them in trust for the exorcism of evil; and in a community whose organic form makes it the duty of every citizen to secure public morals, good laws, and the efficient execution of them?

From the Mobile Advertiser.

The Damage Sustained by the Fleet.

A gentleman from New Orleans, who repeatedly viewed the federal men-of-war from the levee as they lay in the stream, informs us that they bore many marks of the conflict through which they had passed. Some of them were riddled with many shot-holes, and it was understood in the city that the enemy's loss of life was very heavy. The reports are that the confederate flotilla made a desperate fight, and that the marks of damage on the enemy's vessels were the works of our naval gunners. Many of the enemy's vessels had to constantly keep their steam pumps going to prevent sinking, and a large force were at work endeavoring to raise one of the stocks to enable the repair of damages. The confederate gunboat McRea, which came up under a flag of truce, was completely riddied, and only kept from sinking by incessant working of the steam pumps. She sunk in a short time after pumping was suspended.

The captain of the Louisiana is said to have lost a leg and an arm. The enemy's vessels did not stay to fight the Louisiana any longer than they could help, but ran right by her, discharging their tremendous broadsides at close range, almost touching her as they passed in up the river. It was "give and take," a daring and dashing policy which succeeded, as dare and dash generally do in war. It is said that the enemy have not one single naval trophy of victory, every one of our gunboats having been destroyed by them in the fight, or by ourselves, and not one surrendered. Their only prizes were two or three merchant steamers. The confederate flag was not struck or anything that bore it on the bosom of the Mississippi, but went up in flame or down beneath the waters of the great southern river, over which it will wave again, the symbol of empire there. A great loss of life must have been suffered by our flotilla.

The bombardment of the batteries just below the city lasted but an hour and a quarter, when every gun was silenced by the fleet, which laid close up alongside the bank and discharged broadside after broadside of their heavy armaments at close range. The batteries mounted nothing but smooth 24s, which were tumbled over by the great Yankee shot as nine-pins are bowled down by the player's balls. No man was killed, nor is it believed injured by the batteries.

HEALTH OF NEW ORLEANS.—For the satisfaction of the thousands who have loved ones in the federal army in Louisiana and other Gulf states, it is well to state that the old citizens of New Orleans, now here, state positively, that, notwithstanding the report that two or three cases of yellow fever have occurred in that city, there is no danger of the prevalence of that disease in May, and, indeed, not until the latter part of July or August. They say also that experience has shown that immigrants from the north are not so liable to be attacked by the climatic diseases during the first, as during the second year of their residence in the south, and that as far as New Orleans is concerned, the people from the rural districts of Louisiana and Mississippi are quite as liable as northern men to the diseases incident to the immediate locality of New Orleans. They believe that with judicious sanitary regulations the Union soldiers will be even more healthy than the rebel troops in that climate.—Washington Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.

AN ORDINANCE

To amend an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Prevent Swine from Running at Large."

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do Ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The following sections of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Prevent Swine from Running at Large," are hereby amended as follows: Section two is amended by striking out the words, "place as" in the 2d line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the words, "public pound or pounds as now are or hereafter shall be established by," and striking out the words "together with the city marshal shall provide," also by striking out the word "marshal" in the 4th line of said section and inserting in lieu thereof the word "constables." Section three is amended by striking out the word "marshal" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "pound keeper or person in charge of the pound." Section four is amended by striking out the word "marshal" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "person in charge of said pound." Section five is amended by inserting after the word "impounded" in the 3d line of said section, the words "by the pound keeper or person in charge thereof," and by striking out the word "marshal" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "pound keeper or person in charge thereof." Section six is amended by striking out all after the word "treasurer" commencing with the word "and." Section eight is amended by adding thereto the following words, "Any person or persons who shall forcibly break open any pound established by said city and take therefrom or attempt to take therefrom in manner aforesaid any animal or animals impounded therein shall severally forfeit and pay to the city of Janesville, as a penalty, the sum of twenty-five dollars."

SEC. 2. Section seven of said ordinance is hereby amended so that it shall read as follows: All persons appointed by the common council of said city, pound keepers shall provide at their own expense suitable subsistence for all animals impounded, and the persons so appointed shall respectively receive, as compensation as such pound keepers, all moneys by them collected or received for subsistence, together with one half of all penalties collected by them, and shall receive no other or greater compensation. And it shall be the duty of all persons so appointed to report, in writing, to the common council on the first day of every month, said report to be upon oath, the number and kind of animals impounded in the particular pound of which he may have charge, the several sums of money received by him for penalties and subsistence, as well as from sales, from whom received and when, and shall thereupon pay into the treasury of said city all moneys in his hands due said city. Any person appointed pound keeper may be removed at the pleasure of said common council.

Passed this 22d day of May, 1862.

LEASES FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from the accumulations of three years, amount to $86,881.20, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $65,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.
H. G. WILSON, General Agent.

The company has a large number of lives insured in Janesville. Applications for insurance received by the agent, Willard Merrill, at his law office in Lappin's block. mr7dlf

A Slight Cold,

Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

Relief Meeting.

We understand that there will be a meeting of the ladies of this city at Lappin's Hall, Monday afternoon, four o'clock, to make arrangements for further relief of the wounded soldiers in hospital. These soldiers need many comforts they do not possess and which they have no means of obtaining without the aid of benevolent kinsmen and friends. Many of them are now suffering for the want of these comforts, and many more will suffer or die if they are not furnished. Do not let the present call pass unheeded. Such information will be given the meeting Monday afternoon as will show the necessity for immediate action, and a systematic effort, it is expected, will be inaugerated. A general attendance is desired.

Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien Railway.—On and after Monday next trains on this road leave Janesville as follows:

For Milwaukee,.....1:45 P. M.
For Milwaukee,.....11:00 P. M.
For Prairie du Chien,.....11:50 A. M.
For Prairie du Chien,.....1:30 P. M.
For Monroe,.....3:15 P. M.

Returned.—Dr. J. B. Whiting returned to this city a day or two since, from the military hospital at Mound City. His health is much impaired by his labors in the hospital, and an attack of the prevailing disease in that vicinity.

One or more adroit burglars have been preying upon the citizens of Janesville, Kenosha, Racine and other cities in the state, and probably have their headquarters here, or in Chicago. The rascals are uncommonly bold and daring, and unless greater precautions are observed against such midnight marauders, no household valuables are safe. Prepare for them.—Milwaukee News.

In addition to the cases of robbery we have reported here several others occurred about the same time. We hear of none since, but it will be well for our citizens to be on their guard and prepared to make a capture of the thief if any more are attempted.

Finding a Brother among the Secesh.—A gentleman from Iowa was in Madison, having heard that a brother, who went south a few years since, had turned up among the secesh prisoners confined in Camp Randall. Upon visiting the camp he found he had been correctly informed. The brother was there having been taken in arms against his country. He disavowed all sympathy with the secession cause, and asserts that he was impressed into the service. He formerly resided for some ten or twelve years at Waterloo, in Jefferson county, in this state.

Death of Elder Knapp.—Jacob Knapp, well known throughout the county as "Elder Knapp," died in New York on Tuesday, 13th instant, aged sixty years. He was for many years an able and somewhat eccentric revival preacher, and will be remembered as such by many in the northwest.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Kinney will preach to-morrow morning, at the Congregational church, a sermon on the death of Hartwell C. Hern, the orderly sergeant in Captain Wheeler's company.

Railroad Change.—A change in the time table of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway will take place Monday, for the particulars of which see the advertisement on our fourth page. An accommodation train for Chicago, leaving here at seven o'clock in the morning, has been added to the road.

Lieut. James B. Pond.—Our old friend, James B. Pond, 2d lieutenant in Berstow's Cavalry, and formerly editor of the Marksman Journal, is in luck. He is a member of the court martial now convened at St. Louis, to try bridge burners, arrested officers, &c. The court consists of thirteen commissioned officers, from brigadier generals down to 2d lieutenants.—Green Lake Spectator.

A St. Louis correspondent writes: Parson Brownlow's denunciation of northern secessionists applies with great force to the secession sheets tolerated in loyal communities. The favorites of the St. Louis secessionist are the Chicago Times and Cincinnate Enquirer. The former advocates the secession of border state members, and so-called conservatives from congress, as a last resort to prevent the passage of confiscation bills designed to free slaves of rebels. The Enquirer is taken by secessionists only, and the newsboys understand it so well, that they often distort news items, and show the headings of the Enquirer to secessionists as an inducement to buy their papers.

Death of E. P. Christy.—E. P. Christy of New York, the well known Ethiopian performer, who made the attempt to commit suicide some two weeks since, died on Wednesday last from the effects of his wounds. His age was 47. He leaves a fortune of about $200,000.

The Gunboats Building at St. Louis.—The contracts for the building of the new gunboats at St. Louis are completed. One firm is to build three one-clad gunboats at an aggregate cost of $450,000, on a plan submitted by them and approved by the board of naval construction. The iron mail is to be furnished by a leading house, and will cost $100,000. The machinery, from the same house, will amount to $70,000. Two of the hulls are on the stocks at Cairo, and are nearly completed.

Twenty elevators are now in operation in Buffalo. They cost in the vicinity of $800,000. Last year over 50,000,000 bushels of wheat passed through them.

CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.
JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.
E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,
for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

Home Insurance Company of New York.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the Home, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The Home is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked ubon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the Home on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the Home as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the Home wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The Home is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

CONTINENTAL INS. COMPANY,
No. 102 Broadway, New York.
Cash Capital $500,000. Surplu $571,518.26.
Total Assets $1,071,518.26.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing security at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained without any liability whatever to the insured.

Jan. 1, 1862, Gross Assets
$1,071,518.26.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re insure all outstanding risks, was $128,287.24.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as low as any company can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

Relief Meeting.

We understand that there will be a meeting of the ladies of this city at Lappin's Hall, Monday afternoon, four o'clock, to make arrangements for further relief of the wounded soldiers in hospital. These soldiers need many comforts they do not possess and which they have no means of obtaining without the aid of benevolent kinsmen and friends. Many of them are now suffering for the want of these comforts, and many more will suffer or die if they are not furnished. Do not let the present call pass unheeded. Such information will be given the meeting Monday afternoon as will show the necessity for immediate action, and a systematic effort, it is expected, will be inaugerated. A general attendance is desired.

MILWAUKEE AND PRAIRIE DU CHIEN RAILWAY.—On and after Monday next trains on this road leave Janesville as follows:

For Milwaukee,.....1:45 P. M.
For Milwaukee,.....11:00 P. M.
For Prairie du Chien,.....11:50 A. M.
For Prairie du Chien,.....1:30 P. M.
For Monroe,.....3:15 P. M.

RETURNED.—Dr. J. B. Whiting returned to this city a day or two since, from the military hospital at Mound City. His health is much impaired by his labors in the hospital, and an attack of the prevailing disease in that vicinity.

One or more adroit burglars have been preying upon the citizens of Janesville, Kenosha, Racine and other cities in the state, and probably have their headquarters here, or in Chicago. The rascals are uncommonly bold and daring, and unless greater precautions are observed against such midnight marauders, no household valuables are safe. Prepare for them.—Milwaukee News.

In addition to the cases of robbery we have reported here several others occurred about the same time. We hear of none since, but it will be well for our citizens to be on their guard and prepared to make a capture of the thief if any more are attempted.

FINDING A BROTHER AMONG THE SECESH.—A gentleman from Iowa was in Madison, having heard that a brother, who went south a few years since, had turned up among the secesh prisoners confined in Camp Randall. Upon visiting the camp he found he had been correctly informed. The brother was there having been taken in arms against his country. He disavowed all sympathy with the secession cause, and asserts that he was impressed into the service. He formerly resided for some ten or twelve years at Waterloo, in Jefferson county, in this state.

DEATH OF ELDER KNAPP.—Jacob Knapp, well known throughout the county as "Elder Knapp," died in New York on Tuesday, 13th instant, aged sixty years. He was for many years an able and somewhat eccentric revival preacher, and will be remembered as such by many in the northwest.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Kinney will preach to-morrow morning, at the Congregational church, a sermon on the death of Hartwell C. Hern, the orderly sergeant in Captain Wheeler's company.

RAILROAD CHANGE.—A change in the time table of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway will take place Monday, for the particulars of which see the advertisement on our fourth page. An accommodation train for Chicago, leaving here at seven o'clock in the morning, has been added to the road.

LIEUT. JAMES B. POND.—Our old friend, James B. Pond, 2d Lieutenant in Barstow's Cavalry, and formerly editor of the Marksman Journal, is in luck. He is a member of the court martial now convened at St. Louis, to try bridge burners, arrested officers, &c. The court consists of thirteen commissioned officers, from brigadier generals down to 2d lieutenants.—Green Lake Spectator.

A St. Louis correspondent writes: Parson Brownlow's denunciation of northern secessionists applies with great force to the secession sheets tolerated in loyal communities. The favorites of the St. Louis secessionist are the Chicago Times and Cincinnati Enquirer. The former advocates the secession of border state members, and so-called conservatives from congress, as a last resort to prevent the passage of confiscation bills designed to free slaves of rebels. The Enquirer is taken by secessionists only, and the newsboys understand it so well, that they often distort news items, and show the headings of the Enquirer to secessionists as an inducement to buy their papers.

DEATH OF E. P. CHRISTY.—E. P. Christy of New York, the well known Ethiopian performer, who made the attempt to commit suicide some two weeks since, died on Wednesday last from the effects of his wounds. His age was 47. He leaves a fortune of about $200,000.

THE GUNBOATS BUILDING AT ST. LOUIS.—The contracts for the building of the new gunboats at St. Louis are completed. One firm is to build three one-clad gunboats at an aggregate cost of $450,000, on a plan submitted by them and approved by the board of naval construction. The iron mail is to be furnished by a leading house, and will cost $100,000. The machinery, from the same house, will amount to $70,000. Two of the hulls are on the stocks at Cairo, and are nearly completed.

Twenty elevators are now in operation in Buffalo. They cost in the vicinity of $800,000. Last year over 50,000,000 bushels of wheat passed through them.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF
New York.
Cash Capital and Surplus Over
$1,500,000.00.
CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.
JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.
E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,
for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,089.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $916,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $220,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

CONTINENTAL INS. COMPANY,
No. 102 Broadway, New York.
Cash Capital $500,000. Surplus $571,518.26
Total Assets $1,071,518.26.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

Scrip Dividends Declared to Customers.

" 1859	50 "
" 1860	45 "
" 1861	35 "

Jan. 1, 1862, Gross Assets
$1,071,518.26.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re insure all outstanding risks, was $428,287.21.

The company having reserved the right to issue non participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as LOW AS ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

THE effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and blood. By removing all obstructions from the internal organs, stimulating them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, changing it from all humors, and causing it to course anew through every part of the body; restoring the invalid to health and vigorous life. They cure and eradicate from the system, Liver Complaint, that main wheel of so many diseases; Jaundice in its worst forms, all Bilious Diseases and Fever and Ague, Dysentery, all Diseases of the Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Piles, Heart burn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid diseased liver. A few doses of Brandreth's Pills will clear out all impurities of the blood, to which all or more or less subjected in spring and summer.
More than 1,000,000 have been cured by this medicine. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it and you will never regret it.
One 25 cents for a quart. Sold by dealers in Medicine everywhere.
Orders addressed to J. O. LANGLEY, or GOE, C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston, will be promptly filled.

A Great National Work.
Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside,

NO MAN, NO FAMILY, NO OFFICE SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.
The only Correct and Complete
HISTORY OF THE WAR.
THE SOUTHERN REBELLION
and the
WAR FOR THE UNION:
A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,
and
Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,
TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.
In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.
To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.
This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.
It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.
It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.
It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time
It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and it is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Manufacturing Purposes:
No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,
FIFTY DOLLARS.
The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy
LEATHER WORK,
in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand
Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.
We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the
GENUINE ARTICLE.
In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of
I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE, which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any other, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

AN ORDINANCE
Prohibiting the Sale of Property at Auction without License and Regulating the Granting of Licenses therefor.
The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do Ordain as follows:
Section 1. That no person shall hereafter, within the limits of the city of Janesville, sell or dispose of any goods, wares and merchandize or other property whatsoever, by auction unless in the cases excepted by section 1 of chapter 54 of the Revised statutes of the State of Wisconsin, without first having obtained a license therefor from the common council of said city.
Sec. 2. Any person desiring to exercise the business of an auctioneer by selling or offering for sale goods, wares and merchandize or other property at auction as aforesaid, within said city, shall receive a license therefor from the common council thereof, upon making written application therefor, therein particularly describing the place and building in said city where he intends to carry on said business, and upon paying into the treasury of said city, for the use thereof, the sum of fifty dollars as a license fee, taking the treasurer's receipt for the same and annexing it to said written application.
Sec. 3. All licenses granted in pursuance of this ordinance shall be for the term of one year from the date thereof, and shall not be transferable, and no person so licensed shall carry on said business or exercise his calling at any other place in said city than that designated in his application and license.
Sec. 4. If any person or persons shall violate or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance, or of any other ordinance, rule or resolution, order or by-law of said city, now or hereafter in force relating to said business, or the order and good government of said city, such person or persons shall severally forfeit and pay to said city, as a penalty, for each and every violation or noncompliance as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars nor less than ten dollars.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.
THE SOUTHERN REBELLION
and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:
A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES,

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the Story as it is, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured expressly for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that these having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

AN ORDINANCE

Prohibiting the Sale of Property at Auction without License and Regulating the Granting of Licenses therefor.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do Ordain as follows:

Section 1. That no person shall hereafter, within the limits of the city of Janesville, sell or dispose of any goods, wares and merchandize or other property whatsoever, by auction unless in the cases excepted by section 1 of chapter 54 of the Revised statutes of the State of Wisconsin, without first having obtained a license therefor from the common council of said city.

Sec. 2. Any person desiring to exercise the business of an auctioneer by selling or offering for sale goods, wares and merchandize or other property at auction as aforesaid, within said city, shall receive a license therefor from the common council thereof, upon making written application therefor, therein particularly describing the place and building in said city where he intends to carry on said business, and upon paying into the treasury of said city, for the use thereof, the sum of fifty dollars as a license fee, taking the treasurer's receipt for the same and annexing it to said written application.

Sec. 3. All licenses granted in pursuance of this ordinance shall be for the term of one year from the date thereof, and shall not be transferable, and no person so licensed shall carry on said business or exercise his calling at any other place in said city than that designated in his application and license.

Sec. 4. If any person or persons shall violate or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance, or of any other ordinance, rule or resolution, order or by-law of said city, now or hereafter in force relating to said business, or the order and good government of said city, such person or persons shall severally forfeit and pay to said city, as a penalty, for each and every violation or noncompliance as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding fifty dollars nor less than ten dollars.

COUNTY COURT OF ROCK COUNTY.

In the matter of the estate of John R Palmer, deceased.

ON reading and filing the petition of Henry K Whiton, administrator of said estate with the last will and testament of said deceased, setting forth that no personal estate has come into his hands, the amount of debts outstanding against said deceased, and a description of all the real estate of which said deceased died seized and the condition and value thereof, and praying that license may be to him granted to sell the whole of said real estate, and it appearing by said petition that there is no personal property in the hands of said administrator, and that it is necessary in order to pay the said debts to sell the whole of said real estate; it is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before this court, at the office of the judge thereof, in the city of Janesville, on the 10th day of June next, at ten o'clock A. M. then and there to show cause why license should not be granted to said administrator to mortgage, lease or sell so much of the real estate of said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts, and it is further ordered that a copy of this order shall be personally served on all persons interested in said estate, residing in this county, fifteen days prior to the day of said hearing, and shall be published for four successive weeks, once each week prior to said day of hearing, in the Janesville Daily Gazette a daily newspaper published in said city.—May 1st, 1862.
